In probate court yesterday Charles Charron of Barre Town settled his account as guardian of Charles Chalfaux of Barre City. John L. Spaulding of Warren settled his account as executor of the will of Horace W. Lyford, late of Warren. The will of Caroline S. Adams, late of Northfield, was proven. T. Earle Doty of Worcester was appointed administrator of the estate of Daniel Clark.

In the city bowling league last evening two of the leading teams, the Eagles and Apollo club, split even, each five landing two points. The Eagles won but one game but captured another point by having the total pinfall in their favor. On the State street alleys the Tenney team took three points from the Italian-Spanish team. The Tenneys rolled 491 for the first string, Armstrong being high with 119.

50,000 Girls Disappear Annually in United States.

In the February Woman's Home Companion Emily Barton Reid has an exceedingly interesting article on "The Man Across the Aisle" in which she says:

"General Bingham, former police commissioner of New York, is authority for the statement that fifty thousands girls disappear in the United States every year. That may seem like an exaggerated estimate, but the general has more recently repeated it in a private letter, together with the assertion that he believes it an under-statement, rather than otherwise. Perhaps if you could share for one day the experiences of the average officer of the Traveler's Aid society, you would share the general's conviction."

UPSETS IN BASKETBALL.

Montpelier High Drops First Position—Montpelier Seminary Now Last.

There were some upsets in the Northern basketball league as the result of games played last evening. Montpelier high school dropped out of first position by reason of being defeated by People's academy at Morrisville, 41 to 18. Montpelier seminary went to the last position because defeated by St. Johnsbury academy at Montpelier by the score of 22 to 16. Meanwhile Burlington high went into first position by defeating Hardwick academy in Burlington, 52 to 20.

In the Montpelier high-People's academy game, the former team was weakened by the loss of Clark.

The Montpelier seminary-St. Johnsbury academy game was played in the Montpelier armory. It was the fifth defeat out of six games played by the seminary and it was the first victory out of five games played by the academy team. The game was slow and uninteresting. St. Johnsbury showed better teamwork but both were not skillful in shooting baskets.

The visitors took the lead at the start and were never headed, although the ultimate winners had a margin of but one basket for a few minutes. The seminary made but two baskets from the floor in the first 20-minute period, the score standing 9 to 5 at the close of the half. Both teams improved in accuracy of shooting in the last half but the game resembled football more than basketball at times. Masse was slightly injured by coming into contact with a radiator in the first period.

The summary: Montpelier, Vt., 17; Kelley, 12; Ramsdell, 11; Farnham, 8; Hatch, 5; Masse, 4; Ward, 3; St. Mary, 2; Grani, 1; Baskets from floor—Vitty 4, Ellis 4, Hatch 3, St. Mary 2, Grani, Ramsdell, Masse. From fouls—Farnham 4, Hatch 2. Referee—Kenefick. Time—Two 20-minute periods.

TALK OF THE TOWN

I sell leaf tobacco in any quantity for pipe smoking, 40c per lb. George W. Lander, 92 North Main street.

Ernest Dinnon of Bugbee avenue was removed to the City hospital this forenoon in an ambulance. Mr. Dinnon will receive treatment for an attack of pneumonia.

Three girls, ranging in ages from 11 to 13 years, were brought into court before Magistrate H. W. Scott this forenoon on a complaint made under the juvenile act charging them with the theft of money from a drawer in Mrs. W. F. Shepard's millinery store. Parents of the children were also asked to appear and the youthful respondents were represented by counsel in the person of E. R. Davis. It is stated by the police that the girls employed a very clever ruse in cleaning the drawer of pin money in daylight. Mrs. Shepard's gracious consent to let the youngsters use her telephone, it is said, permitted the three visitors to her store to group themselves around the drawer, located conveniently near the instrument. When the makeshift message had been given over the wire, the trio thanked the milliner and departed. The absence of loose change in the little till was noted later. Some of the facts in the case, denials and counter-denials, were coming out of the shuffle of childish accusations when Magistrate Scott adjourned the case to Monday afternoon.

The Trials of a Congressman in Taking Up His Old Profession.

In the February American Magazine is an exceedingly interesting interview with a member of the U. S. House of Representatives, who tells of the almost impossible barriers between him and his old profession, the law.

"After I had been in Congress a couple of terms I decided that I would be happier and that my family would be vastly better off if I were back home practicing my profession," he said. "So after the adjournment of Congress I set out to rebuild my neglected law business."

"I was astounded at what a job it was. My practice was not merely run down or temporarily absent. It was gone! Now, I had not yet become a top-notch lawyer in my profession before going to Congress. In order to make a comfortable income I had not been able to depend alone on the better grade of legal business but was still obliged to do some of the more trivial work such as every young lawyer is glad to get. This class of business had gone from me in my absence, along with the rest. And it did not come back, because of a reason that I had not thought of. During my terms in Congress I had come to be looked upon as an important figure in the community, and everybody regarded me as above such things as performing legal services of a trivial or minor character. Thus I did not get the small business, and the big business was being taken care of by other lawyers who had been constantly on the job."

Toggery for the Ice.

As to skating togs, these have been the chief signs of skating times. The whole of manufacturing New York revolves around a new social fad; and with that curious sixth sense which marks the designers and arbiters of clothes, the styles, even early in the winter, were notably prophetic of the forthcoming craze for skating. How do they know what is going to happen—these amazing fashion-mongers? Yet full, fur-trimmed skirts of startling brevity, high shapely shoes, and a storm of wooly caps and scarfs made their appearance long before a skate had been mentioned. The tide has not turned just as it was expected to, for the wooly things were rejected in favor of close velvet toques and high collars of dignified fur. Fashion seems, too, the snubbed skating shoe and the ankle-strap. Elim well-fitting boots of beautifully stitched kid she will have. Such is the decree—Edith Brownell in the Country-side Magazine for February.

Prospective patrons of the game are urged to bear the change in mind. At Montpelier last evening St. Johnsbury defeated Montpelier seminary by the score of 23 to 16.

The following item from yesterday's Boston Journal will be of interest in Barre: "Manager Jason Bickford of the Tufts '19 basketball team announced last night that the team has disbanded and the dates cancelled on account of the unfortunate accident in the game with the C. B. A. team of Boston university Saturday night, which resulted in the death of one of the members of the B. U. five."

Forty couples were in attendance and at intermission refreshments of wafers and lemonade were served. Music for the dancing was furnished by Miss Spear and Mr. Phillips of Montpelier. A natural skating rink was formed on the depression at the Ayers street driving park closely on the heels of the recent warm spell and children who visited the park this morning were quick to inform the water superintendent that there was a chance for the department to do a lot of good in the way of preserving the rink. Supt. Lee and Chief Gladding of the fire department looked over the situation and decided that a little banking at one end of the rink would provide the youngsters in the south end with a skating rink as long as the frigid weather continues. Ashes are to be used in constructing a bank to prevent the surplus water from escaping to the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Bond, who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, very pleasantly entertained the clerks, city carriers and rural delivery carriers from the federal building, where Mr. Bond is employed, last evening. There were 20 employees of Uncle Sam who sat down to a substantial dinner as soon as the business of the night was concluded at the postoffice. After dinner a pleasurable program of music and impromptu speaking was enjoyed. Speaking in behalf of the guests John A. Leslie presented Mr. and Mrs. Bond a purse of gold, conveying within his remarks the felicitations of those who are associated with Mr. Bond at the government building.
